Vote for Independence

Summary	It is espoused in law that Afrodescendants and indigenous peoples have the Right of Self-Determination. This means that wherever Afrodescendants live they can collectively make a decision to take independent political control over that area and institute new policies. Organized collective consent to assert the right of self-determination leaves federal and state government officials with no authority to execute harmful policies..
Vote	Under Article 1 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, I choose to assert my right of self-determination as an Afrodescendant or indigenous person and vote that Jackson, Mississippi become independent of current federal and state governments. I consent to Human Rights Policy Officers' humanitarian intervention to execute new reparations and social-economic policies via the current Mayor and elected officials if they are in agreement.
